We believe the best way to internalize a new habit is to provide tools that reinforce the desired practice. At Ceptara, as we consult and teach the ideas of personal, team and business excellence, and we supply a number of tools that help drive those ideas into everyday practice.

FocusMe for Outlook Add-in - Ceptara's FocusMe for Outlook add-in builds on the features of the Organizer that has helped thousands of individuals become super focused. In this upgraded version for Outlook 2013+, we've added more tools, restyled to be more tablet (finger) friendly, and have added team collaboration using our new FocusSync service and Microsoft SharePoint.
